If that Texas woman who was nominated by the Socialists is elected to Congress she will be in a position to show the Congressmen how to keep their skirts clean.

A Florida fish warden has been sent to jail for perjury. He should have known that he couldn't infringe on the privileges of piscatorialists without getting into trouble.

A St. Louis judge refused a divorce to a woman who sued because her husband gave her only 10 cents a day for support. That judge doesn't recognize stravation as a ground for divorce.

The Columbia Record remarks: "A Frenchman figures it out that there are 250,000,000 of the inhabitants of this sphere who wear no clothes at all." Gee! That Frenchman must have taken into his count all the women who complain that they "haven't got a thing to wear."

When Secretary Taft gets back to the United States we are afraid that he will go around claiming that he put down two insurrections at the behest of President Roosevelt—the insurrection among the North Carolina Republicans and the other in the neighborhood of Cuba.

Says the Philadelphia Inquirer: "The crop of breach of promise suits is so great that pretty soon a man will not dare to look at a girl unless he has already taken out a marriage license." If simply looking at a girl would bring her to time many a bashful man wouldn't mind going around armed with a license.

One scientist has predicted that all the coal in the earth will be exhausted in 10,000,000 years and another declares that the Sun will be an iceberg in 20,000,000 years. This won't worry some people now living but others who always worry before they cross over the bridge are bound to take the thing to heart.

Some Republican spielers are on the stump in North Carolina trying to paint the Democratic party black, and extending invitations to North Carolinians to jine the radicals. People who haven't lost their memory have not forgotten that the same spielers helped to make the Republican party so infamous that they couldn't afford to join it if they wanted to do so.

ADDRESS TO ALL

King's Daughters of North Carolina Appeal for Support of Reformatory Movement

TO RECLAIM THE BOYS

Figures and Statistics Quoted to Prove That Such An Institution is a Prime Necessity—Other States and Their Success.

The Reformatory Committe of the King's Daughters of North Carolina have issued the following address upon a subject which should be of general interest to all:

To the Men of North Carolina:

The King's Daughters of North Carolina, at their last State convention, elected the undersigned committee to petition the men of the State to establish a reformatory for boys. We ask your careful consideration and endorsement of the plea which we make to you. There are more than one hundred reformatories in this country, all working successfully. The foremost States in this work are California, Connecticut, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Virginia. Why is not North Carolina on this list? Her boys are as well worth saving as others, her men and women as philanthropic, and yet her criminal children are either hardened in their crimes, by association with those more vicious than themselves, or have to be sent to other States for reformation; that there may be no doubt of the duty and expediency of having a Reform School, in this State, we mention the following statistics:

The majority of States declares that they save 75 per cent. of delinquents in their reformatories. The percentage is much larger in the case of youthful than adult offenders. In some cases 90 per cent., and more, of the youthful criminals are reclaimed. In Nashville, Tenn., a citizen in presence of the Reform School stated that of 1,300 inmates only 11 had been known to return to criminal life. From the House of Refuge, Cincinnati, we learn that the number of good reports received from boys after leaving the institution is 91 per cent. From Brooklyn, we are told that 83 per cent. of juvenile criminals are reclaimed, and only 10 per cent. of adults. There can be no doubt, then, of our duty to edcuate, morally and mentally, our juvenile offenders. As a matter of economy, money is saved to the State by doing so. A boy is clothed, fed, taught and reclaimed in a Reform School at a cost of $100 a year. A sheriff is paid $100 annually, for feeding him only.

If the wealth of a State depends upon its producers, we increase that class by saving the boys and converting them into working men, and, in like manner, diminish the number of consumers who have to be fed and guarded in the jails.

Come to our aid then, and save the boys by urging that the Legislature establish a reformatory for them.

GAYLORD'S OPENING

Magnificent Display of Fall and Winter Millinery at Big Department Store on North Front Street—Continues Through To-Day.

The annual opening of Fall and Winter millinery at the big Department stores of George O. Gaylord, on North Front street, began yesterday and will continue through to-day until 6:30 o'clock this evening. The openings at this store are always events of much pleasure to the ladies of the city and many visitors to Wilmington but this year, if anything, Mr. Gayord and his corps of half a hundred assistants have exceeded themselves. Upon thousands of feet of floor space in two large stores there is an artistic display in every line of goods carried by this mammoth establishment and yesterday the first day of the opening the stores were crowded with ladies and their escorts all day, from every hand coming words of the most sincere congratulation to the proprietor and salesmen and salesladies upon the excellency of the splendid exhibit.

Of course the millinery department was the centre of greatest interest. This is in charge of Miss Alma Brown, the head milliner, who is assisted by a score of young ladies in the trimming and sales department. The stock of hats and trimmings this season is much more select than ever before and some of the newest shapes and styles are shown. Miss Brown has spent the past several Summers in New York studying the latest shapes and styles in the art and her friends are kind enough to tell her this season on that she never selected a prettier line. The stock embraces all the new shapes in ready-to-wear hats and the products of the store's own work rooms. One of the most popular walking hats is the North Carolina. Some other are the Peter Pan turbans. About 400 hats already made up are shown and were much admired yesterday. The department also has all the French frames for making up velvet turbans and the like. The decorations in the millinery department this year are tasteful but not overelaborate. The hats and the beautiful trimmings speak for themselves and they are here in great variety. The invitation is to all ladies of the city to visit the display to-day.

On the same floor with the millinery and across the way is perhaps the largest cloak suit department in the State. Miss Woodberry is in charge and a variety of styles and shades are shown. Some favorites in the line are the Princess Chap and the Tourist coat, being the latest out in this line. There is also on display a very pretty line of rain coats and furs; the newest effects in plaids, etc. The line of children's garments, cloaks and furs is also very complete and the prices will be found quite appealing to the discriminating buyer.

On the same floor will be found a department devoted exclusively to the large number of handsome premiums given at the store. Miss Mabel Staniland is in charge and every article is on easy display. This department is one of the most popular in the store and while necessarily, it is not a profit-making venture, Mr. Gaylord finds that it is quite an inducement to the trade.

Downstairs in the big store there is an unusually attractive display of dress goods, clothing, notions, etc., each department in the hands of some competent person who has vied with another in the attractiveness of his or her display. The windows are handsomely dressed and present a most inviting appearance. Mr. W. B. Walters, assistant general manager of the large store, designed the decorations and the display on this floor and it shows up remarkably well. The stock here is perhaps the largest in the city and perhaps the largest in the State. Nearly everything is carried and it is made worth the while of the buyer to look over the offerings before making selections.

But the opening will continue until 6:30 o'clock this evening and the public is invited by Mr. Gaylord to call and take a look over the mammoth stock. The ladies especially will be interested in the millinery while other departments will appeal to the sterner sex.

Beer contains but three to four per cent. of alcohol, and is now classed among temperance drinks by fair minded people. Portner's Hofbrau is the beer of quality. Call for it. 'Phone 99. **

DOCKET IS CLEARED

New Hanover Superior Court Finished Business of Two Weeks' Term.

JUDGE JONES RETURNS HOME

Many Cases Continued Yesterday—Motion For Removal of Penny Damage Suit Denied—Final Order In Back Tax Suit Entered.

New Hanover Superior Court has adjourned for the term to all intents and purposes and Judge E. B. Jones, who has been presiding with such signal ability, left last night for his home at Winston. There was no formal adjournment of the term and unless something extraordinary should develop before the court expires by limitation Saturday midnight, no other matters on the docket will be disposed of.

The cases tried yesterday were not important and the proceedings of the day consisted largely in going over the docket and winding up odds and marking others off or entering judgment therein.

Upon the convening of the morning session the case of the Murchison National Bank against J. E. Boyd was resumed. Defendant failed to make answer and judgment was given for the full amount of $1,500 asked with interest.

The matter of the judgment in the case of the City of Wilmington against E. K. Bryan involving back taxes to the amount of $1,076.53 was called up early during the day and judgment was entered according to decision of the Supreme Court. It was finally agreed to make the rate of interest four per cent., as it was testified that a part of the money in controversy had been bearing the defendants only that amount. The money will be paid over to the city at once.

Another interesting proceeding in the court yesterday was the hearing of a motion to remove the damage suit of B. F. Penny against the Atlantic Coast Line to another county. An affidavit was presented from Mr. Penny in which it was stated that the case had been much discussed in the newspapers of the city and has been freely talked about by various citizens of the county, so much so that the plaintiff verily believed that it is next to impossible to get a jury in the mode prescribed by law which would be able to render a verdict either for or against the plaintiff and thinks that the ends of justice would be met and promoted by a removal to some other county for trial. The affidavit of Mr. Penny sets out the great difficulty of getting a jury at previous trials in this county.

Counter affidavits were presented from Mr. James F. Post, treasurer; Mr. E. Borden, general superintendent of transportation, and Capt. Jno. F. Divine, of the Atlantic Coast Line; Mr. H. C. McQueen, president of the Murchison National Bank; Mr. Jno. S. Armstrong, president of the Atlantic National Bank, and Mr. M. S. Willard, all of whom certify to their opinion that Mr. Penny has been long a resident of Wilmington; that he belongs to a number of the lodges, etc., of the city, and that they believe he can get as fair a trial in New Hanover as elsewhere.

After hearing the argument of all parties concerned yesterday, Judge Jones declined a motion to remove the case to another county and it will likely be set for trial at the next term.

Other cases disposed of yesterday were as follows:

George C. Burgwin and others vs. B. A. Carter and others, off.

MILLINERY DISPLAY

Annual Fall and Winter Opening at Store of The C. W. Polvogt Company—Millinery and Dry Goods Exhibit of Note.

An event of far reaching importance to the devotees of fashion in Wilmington is the annual opening of Fall and Winter millinery and dry goods at the leading establishment of the C. W. Polvogt Company, in the Southern Building, on Front street, which began at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and will continue until 6 o'clock this evening. There is no undue attempt at gaudy display in the opening at this store. Extreme good taste obtains in every department, yet for this occasion some measure of seeming extravagant statement is necessary to a proper description of what may be verified by a visit to the store. Potted plants, smilax and other evergreens form the basis of the decorations, the colors blending in perfect harmony with the bright, new effects in every department. It was the verdict of the large number of ladies who visited the store yesterday that the opening was in every way an artistic success, both in the beauty and magnificence of styles shown and the general arrangement of these for the inspection of those who came to see.

Miss Alice Peacock, of Philadelphia, is in charge of the trimming department of the millinery and Mrs. Bessie Felton is in charge of the salesroom. Both are highly accomplished milliners and have been South several seasons. This Summer they were joined North by Mr. Polvogt and it is no exaggeration of the facts to say that never before has a finer selection of millinery been made for a Wilmington establishment than that made by them on this visit and now on display at the store. The leading shades as shown this year at the Polvogt establishment are taupe, dark red, prune and wine. Some of the leading trimmings are uncurled ostrich plumes, Vulture feathers, paradise plumes, wings and birds. In the stock in addition to the usual large number of picture hats are the Castles and Gerhardts, for which the Polvogt Company is the exclusive agent in this territory. For the novice to attempt anything like a description of the many beautiful shapes and styles shown in this department of hats and millinery is like an excursion into the impossible. It is the verdict of competent judges that nowhere in Wilmington will a prettier or more select line of these goods be found. A great many orders were taken yesterday and many selections were made for future delivery, but there is yet a great variety and many of the favorites are still on display. The ladies have a cordial invitation to visit the store to-day and see for themselves the many new offerings.

Not alone is the opening at Polvogt's confined to the millinery. All over the store from the handsomely dressed windows in front to the topmost floor there is a display of the newest and most up-to-date in every line. The window displays are especially pretty with their backgrounds of garnet and tasteful arrangement of goods. The centre oval show window is devoted exclusively to millinery and the two side windows are given, one to dress goods and the other to silks. These are the products of the ingenuity of Mr. Allie Price, who is an adept in this line and who had general charge of the decorations all over the store.

In the dress goods department broadcloths occupy first place. It is in wines and garnets of various shades. Plaids of every description are also strong this season; plaids for skirts and plaid silks for waists. Fancy mixtures in Panamas and cheviots are also great favorites in the dress goods lines.

The cloak and suit department occupies a large apartment just under the millinery. This comparatively new departure at the store has grown to large proportions and the stock this year will be found very complete. Miss Lizzie Mulford is in charge of the department and had many visitors for the opening yesterday.

Another department of which the proprietors of the store are justly proud is that of the carpet, matting, curtain and draperies. Mr. E. W. Fonveille, a man of wide experience, is in charge and a large stock of the latest novelties are shown. The stock in this department is very complete and a specialty is made of turning out work expeditiously and in comparison with the finest fabrics sold anywhere.

MUST ERECT DEPOT

Corporation Commission Orders Substantial Structure by Seaboard at Lumberton.

RAILROAD IN BLADEN COUNTY

To Run to White Oak—No Liquor Election in Raleigh This Year—Supreme Court Opinions—Exposition Building.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., October 9.—An order is made by the Corporation Commission for the Seaboard Air Line and Raleigh & Charleston Railway to proceed with the erection of a union station at Lumberton in accordance with plans submitted by the railroad company, the cost estimated at $6,000, within ninety days.

The Secretary of State charters the Bladen & Northern Railroad with $100,000 capital for the construction of a railroad from a point in Cumberland or Bladen counties on the Atlantic Coast Line, to White Oak, Bladen county, a distance of twenty miles. The principal incorporators are William Moncure, of Raleigh. D. E. McIver, of Sanford, and others.

There can be no election on prohibition, dispensary or open saloons in Raleigh this year, the Supreme Court having this evening dismissed the case of Rev. J. S. Betts vs. City of Raleigh, in which the Aldermen appealed from the order by Judge Webb, allowing a mandamus, compelling the Aldermen to call an election. The dismissal is on the ground that no matter how the court might decide the point of the Watts' act not allowing an election on prohibition or dispensary, the technical point of the defect in the Watts' act is the fact that it would be impossible to hold an election this year now without being either within ninety days before or after the general election.

In a list of opinions delivered are the following: Edgerton vs. Cames, from Wayne, no error; Brown vs. Southerland, Wayne, reversed; Jones vs. Telegraph Co., Harnett, per curiam affirmed.

The North Carolina Commission for the Jamestown Exposition spent this afternoon and until late tonight considering plans for the North Carolina building at the Exposition, plans being offered by three architects, and finally referred the whole matter to the executive committee with power to act. The committee consists of G. S. Powell, Asheville; G. W. Hinshaw, Winston-Salem; H. C. Dockery, Rockingham. It is settled that the building will cost $15,000 and will be colonial in architecture, permanently erected and sold at the close of the Exposition for residence or country club purpose.

CAPT. J. J. ADKINS DECLINES.

Will Not Run for the House in Brunswick County.

It was officially stated yesterday afternoon that Capt. J. J. Adkins, who was recently nominated by the Democratic Convention for the Legislature from Brunswick county, would decline to make the race. Capt. Adkins has business engagements that he says positvely forbid his acceptance of the nomination. This will be a source of regret to the Democracy of his county for it was generally conceded on all sides that the nomination was one of the strongest that could have been made. The matter of filling the place on the ticket will be left with the Executive Committee of the county of which Dr. T. V. Moore, of Phoenix, is chairman.

Married Last Evening.

At the home of the bride, on Ann between Sixth and Seventh streets, yesterday evening at 8 o'clock Mrs. Fannie E. Dixon and Mr. Geo. T. Gotgen were happily married by Rev. A. McCullen, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. church, in the presence of a number of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Grotgen will make their home on Ann street.

County Committee to Organize.

The Democratic County Executive Committee elected in the recent primary will meet to-night in the Court House for organization. Prominently spoken of for chairmen are William J. Bellamy, Esq., and Mr. G. J. Boney, both of whom have strong following.

You are invited to attend Gaylord's millinery opening to-day. **

NO GOVERNMENT DUG CANAL.

President Roosevit's enthusiasm about digging the Panama canal has been let down a notch or two. After Congress decided upon a lock canal, the President issue a kind of boyish injunction to "dig! dig! dig!" Now it is found that digging is not so easy as to sit in Washington and imagine that all you have to do is to blow the horn for your hands, march them out with their picks and "make the dirt fly" as the President promised.

So we are to have no government dug canal. The Panama Canal Commission has found out that it is impossible for the government to dig the great waterway. The government has been up against it severely and for some time the Commission has been considering what to do. The Commission has been conferring with President Roosevelt for several days and the conclusion has been reached to let the digging out to contractors. President Roosevelt was acquainted with the obstacles to government digging and he has concurred in the plan to have the work done by contract.

It was announced in our Associated Press dispatches from Washington on Monday that it has finally been decided that Chairman Shonts had a long conference with the President and the various arguments in favor of the contract system were discussed fully. It was decided that the work can be done more satisfactorily by contract, and we should say that it can be done more economically, too. The Washington dispatch in announcing the decision that the digging shall be by contract says:

"This change in the plan of building the canal will in no way affect the employment of Chinese labor. Proposals for furnishing the Chinese labor were made under such conditions that they can be transferred to contractors and the terms can be fulfilled in such a manner that the government can give the coolies just as much protection as it could if the government were the direct employer.

"It is likely that no dispositon will be made of the bids for suppying Chinese labor until after the return of Secretary Taft from Cuba, as he assisted in drawing the specifications under which proposals were offered and is much interested in the conditions under which the Chinese are to be taken to the isthmus.

"President Roosevelt still intends to visit the isthmus this Fall and unless there be some change for the worse in the Cuban situation will probably leave for Colon a short time after the election. Chairman Shonts, of the canal commission, will be in the isthmus at the time of the President's visit."

The government had recently awarded a contract for Chinese labor to work on the canal, and probably that will be more embarrassing than any other feature in changing the plans, although the Commission announces that it can get around that question.

The fact is the Roosevelt administration has fallen down in digging the canal, or even getting started at it after three years trial.

STATE DRAINAGE OF SWAMPS.

The Jacksonville Times-Union looks upon the proposed drainage of the Everglades as an impracticable task for the State of Florida. Our esteemed Florida contemporary in its opposition to the State's undertaking a stupendous drainage enterprise, uses an argument that is specially interesting at this time. It says:

"As soon as the Spaniards gained practical knowledge of American geography their engineers proposed a canal across the isthmus; the first exploration for a route was made in 1527-28 by De Serna. Humboldt again proposed a canal in 1803, insisting for the first time on its international necessity. The first formal survey by our government for a canal route was made by Col. Hughes in 1849, and the project has ever since lived in the minds of our statesmen and in the hopes of the world. And in all these years the projectors have never denied the practibility save as knowledge and means were sufficient—all the engineers and statesmen and philanthropists of that long series of years have insisted that exact knowledge and adequate means must be provided before the work was undertaken.

Finally, when the people of the United States decided the work must be done, when the money of the richest country on earth was behind the enterprise, the acquisition of the necessary knowledge still delays the work, though machinery has at last so largely taken the place of human muscles and sanitation has become a science. But, according to Gov. Broward all this time has been wasted—he would do a work proportionately as great without money, without knowledge and without a plan—he thinks men stumble on success as he picked up position and power.

"New York built the Erie canal as Broward would drain the Everglades, and it has cost her a thousand times its legitimate expense—it saddled graft upon her, and the jobbers were her political bosses a life-time before they came to the rest of us. De Lesseps began the Suez canal without adequate provision for the money and found it when completed lost to himself and to his country—a profit and benefit only to her enemy and his. Lincoln saw the necessity of a transcontinental highway as a war measure and the millions of the government became the spoils of the grafter and the means of national corruption.

"All history condemns the proposition urged by Gov. Broward in the shape presnted by him, but we need not blame his ignorance or lack of judgment since he has his limitations. But the people of Florida would convict themselves of folly did they follow the blind into the ditch yawning across the pathway."

WHISKEY TASTE IS ERADICATED

Graduate of Keeley Institute Writes a Friend How It Started Him on a New Life—Drank 20 Years.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Dear Friend:—

I was addicted to the whiskey habit for twenty years or more, and had become almost a physical wreck when I made up my mind to take the treatment. After deciding that there was no other hope for me, the question then arose as to where I should go for treatment, and on account of the delightful location of the Institute in Grensboro, N. C., I decided to go there, and have never had any reason to regret it, as I found the buildings and grounds all that I could wish for, and the officers, doctor and attendants kind, courteous gentlemen, who did all in their power to make my stay pleasant and beneficial to me. Of course the treatment at all institutions is the same, and I would not say a word to detract from your home institution, but if you can make up your mind to take the treatment (and I certainly hope you can) I would certainly advise you to go to Greensboro for treatment for sevral reasons, and then you will be separated from your old associates at the time you are taking the treatment, which you will find advantageous in getting a new start in life, for it is nothing else but a new start for a man like you or myself to take the Keeley Treatment. It will not perform any miracle in your case or any one else, but it will certainly eradicate the taste for alcoholic liquors and put you where you were before you ever drank. Then it is up to you to keep sober or go back to drinking, as you please. For myself, I can truthfully say that from the time I left the Institute until the present I have never had the slightest desire for a drink; but, if the thirst for liquor should return to me at any time, I would not lose a day in going back to Greensboro and taking treatment again, and I have had more satisfaction in living the last two years than I had in the previous twenty. In conclusion let me beg of you to lose no time in making up your mind to take the treatment and go to Greensboro at once. If you conclude to go let me know, and I will write to some friends I have there to call on you and make your stay as pleasant as possible.

TERRIBLE COST OF EARTHQUAKES

The Annual Loss on This Shaky Old Earth is 3,560 Lives and Millions of Dollars of Property.

(London Mail.)

The annual loss of life in the world occasioned by earthquake is, on the averaged, about 3,500. This number is fairly in accordance with the numbers lost during the last twelve months. On October 8, 1891, Japan lost 9,000 of her people, or double the number lost in her war with China. The wounded numbered 19,994. With a single earthquake is 1896 the loss of life in the same country approached 30,000. If we turn to the loss of property after the earthquake of 1891 $30,000,000 was required for the restoration of railways, roads, bridges and other public works. In addition to this 128,750 houses together with factories, temples and other buildings, had to be restored.

In 1897, after a disastrous earthquake in Assam, the chief commissioner of that country reported to the secretary of the government of India that their own resources had been exhausted, and, with the object of restoring various public works, a grant from the imperial revenues would be required to assist his administration. The total damage ocasioned, much of which had to be met by shareholders in railways, tea factories and other industries, was roughly estimated at $25,000,000. Speaking generally, a large earthquake in a populated country often results in damage to the extent of several millions.

If it is asked whether these expenditures can be reduced the answer is distinctively in the affirmative. One of the outcomes of modern seismology has been to devise instruments which measure the earthquake motion. From a knowledge of the actual nature of earthquake motion derived from the use of these instruments new rules and formulae for the use of engineers and builders have been established. In Japan and other countries these have been extensively applied in the construction of piers for bridges, tall chimneys, walls, ordinary dwellings, embankments, reservoirs, etc. Inasmuch as the new types of structure have withstood violent earth shakings, while ordinary types in the neighborhood have failed, it can be confidently stated that much has already been accomplished to minimize the loss of life.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

—Fire at High Point on Monday night caused a loss of several thousand dollars at the Vivctor Chair Company. The fire was in the finishing room on the second floor and burned rapidly from the first, destroying almost one end of the building before —Charlotte News: An interesting visitor in Charlotte today was Rev. Gelesea Ramirez, a native of the Philippine Islands. Mr. Ramirez has finished the ecclesiastical studies and came to American about four months ago to get an idea of the Americans and their ways and customs. He is 23 years old and a graduate of San Carlos Seminary which was established at Celto, in the Philippins Islands, more than 250 years ago.

Salisbury Special, Oct. 8: Hon. Richmond Pearson Hobson arrived here on the noon train from the West and went to the home of his cousin, A. H. Price, and later to Mrs. W. C. Blackmer's. A steady stream of admirers called upon him. Tonight he addressed the Democratic voters in the court house and was introduced by Hayden Clement, Esq., who leaped into political eloquence Saturday night in his maiden speech in the country. A large audience listened to Hobson to-nigth and his address has novelty if not altogether popular Democracy.

—Lexington Special, Oct. 8: The negro Oscar Gaddy, who murdered R. H. Eubanks, a white boss at the Lane Brothers' camp yesterday morning, has escaped ,and at present all efforts to capture him have failed. The crime was one of the most burtal ever committed in this county, there being absolutely no provocation. Eubanks' remains were sent to Pedlar's Mill, his home, in Amherst county, Va., this morning. He had a wife and three children, and was a fine man. The excitement over this was increased this morning by another railroad negro who openly threatened to kill Mr. Butler, also a foreman. He was chased several blocks and finally captured up stairs in the home of D. F. Conrad, a leading citizen, living on Main street. He was sent to the roads for 60 days. There has been considerable feeling, and yesterday threats of lynching, but everything is quiet now. A —Charlotte Observer: A well-known citizen of Wadesboro, who spent yesterday in Charlotte, detailed to an Observer reporter the highly interesting rumor that Mr. John T. Patrick would shortly begin the erection there of a handsome new hotel. "Mr. Patrick is equally prominent as a promoter, capitalist, philanthropist and hotel king," declared the visitor. "For years he has been engaged in building towns and erecting hotels and incidentally making considerable money for his employers, the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company, and himself. Mr. Patrick is a native of Wadesboro and often visits here. He is visiting there now. and often speaks of his desire to assist in making Wadesboro a city. The development of an immense water power nearby, at Bluitt Falls, and the construction of the Southbound Railroad, together with other improvements of similar nature, points to the fact that the future has much in store for Wadesboro. It is concurrently reported that Mr. Patrick is now considering the plans for a modern hotel at Wadesboro which will materially assist in the progress of the town. Not only will the general traveling patronage be solicited, but tourists as well. The surondings at Wadesboro are said to be even more favorable than at Aberdeen, Southern Pines or Pinehurst, and with proper encouragement there is every reason why it should participate in the winter tourist patronage."

THE MOTOR BOAT IN GREAT FAVOR

Has Done Away With Small Sailing Vesels and Fishring Schooners Now Use Motors—Is Time Saver.

(American Shipbuliding.)

It is simply marvelous how the motor boat has grown into popular favor Eatstern waters are full of them, and to-day a row boat is scarcely to be seen; little cat-boats speed along head to wind with their mainsails furled, large fishing schooners have their power , and glide along at four or five knots an hour, whereas, but for the powerrevolution, they would lay becalmed or at anchor in some quiet nook waiting for a breeze. Oyster boats, merchandisers, sword-fishermen, bankers, and in fact floating property of every and all classes are now being propelled by a force that is simple, easily controlled and a saver in time that amounts up into millions, and of human energy that is beyond computation.

This is an age of power, of hidden force that lightens manual labor, prolongs life and enables man to do quadruple the amount of money-getting that they were able to do before the introduction of this new and inexpensive motor power. The day is coming when every sailing craft will be direct acting or by means of the power launches carried aboard. whicvh will be put overboard to tow the largeer vessel through a calm belt or out of or into a harbor.

New Haven, Conn., October 8.—After clinging to the sides of the capsized British schooner for fourteen hours, Captain Lohems and a crew of five men were rescued by the auxiliary yacht Aloha belonging to Arthur C. James, of New York, and brought to this port to-day. The Oceanic, whcih was overturned in the blow of yeterday, was towed here by the yacht and she now lies on her beam ends in the lower harbor.

A BIRD OF GUIANA.

It Can Speak Every Language That It Once Hears.

There is a bird of Guiana which deserves to be widely known. This is the "tion-tion" (pronounced tee-yawn tee-yawn) on account of its cry. This bird is valued by the natives for its brilliant plumage, especially the tail feathers, which they wear in their headdress and make clothing of, but the most interesting characteristic of this strange bird is its imitative faculty.

A naturalist became acquainted with the bird's powers in a curious manner. He was awakened from his sleep one night by hearing cries of distress in French. Some one was being murdered not far away, so much was absolutely certain. There were cries for mercy and help, uttered in excellent French, shrieks of agony and groans. Jumping to his feet he awoke his Indian guides, saying that they must all go to the assistance of the victim. At that moment the voice uttered a shout of ironical laughter, followed by "tion-tion," and the guides turned over, with a grunt of vexation. The learned naturalist had a great deal to learn, they remarked sarcastically.

The tion-tion is the worst of chatterboxes. It can, and does, imitate every sound it hears, with the utmost fidelity. It can speak all languages, giving the proper accent and intonation. This is a strong statement, but it is correct. It will shout for assistance in the best English or German, and you will really believe that some fellow countryman is in dire distress until the bird interrupts its own pleadings with a derisive laugh. Then you feel like one who has been the victim of a 1st of April joke. If the bird could be caught and so far domesticated as to be happy in confinement the parrot would go out of fashion as a home pet.

Thumbs and Temper.

"By her thumb ye shall know her" is a guide to the young man who contemplates matrimony and yet is doubtful how the chains of wedlock will sit on the girl of his heart. Delightful a companion as she is before marriage, will she turn out a termagant? He can learn readily, say the modern ages, and by the folding of her thumbs. He should take her to church and watch her closely. When she crosses her hands piously he should note if she folds her right thumb over her left, or vice versa. If the left goes over the right she has a dominating mind, and he will be walking a chalk line when he's hers. If the right goes over the left she will be a docile, uncomplaining mate who acknowledges the superiority of the masculine mind.—New York Press.

If He Had $10,000,000.

Rogers once walked into the hut of Ned Haskins, who lived the life of a semihermit in a hut eight feet square close to Fort Phenix in Fairhaven, Mass., where Mr. Rogers' summer house stands now.

"Ned, what would you do if you had $10,000,000?" asked Rogers.

"By jings," said the hermit after long cogitation, "I'd have this hut built two feet larger."—R. H. Murray's "Henry H. Rogers" in Human Life.

PAWNEE BILL SHOWS.

Big Tented Enterprise to be Seen Here Next Monday.

There is something so refreshingly new about the Pawnee Bill Historic Wild West and Great Far Eastern exhibitioin, which will be in Wilmington next Monday, that it commends itself to all. It is a pleasing departure from all other tented exhibitions and its various departments are made up of features that have a tendency not only to entertain but to educate and elevate as well. Major Gordon W. Lillie—Pawnee Bill—is authority for the statement that, "An exhibition that does not benefit those who attend, does them harm."

Pawnee Bill's show cannot be confounded into the old-time circus, and the same acts that have been given year after year, for every year it is re-organized and new features are constantly being added. Everything is natural and patrons are not obliged to strain their eyes at two or three rings, for the perfomance is all given in one large open arena, where horses and riders are given full sway and not confined to the circle of a circus ring. Another part in which it is to be complimented is the absence of close, stifling, headache-producing tents, and the disagreeable odor that always accompanies all menageries. With Pawnee Bill's show there is no covered tent and always an abundance of pure air. Only canopy tops are used and these cover only the sections reserved for seats. They are all sun and rain proof. Every seat is provided with back and foot rests and the old-time circus seats have been relegated to shows not so progressive as that of Pawnee Bill's.

Major Lillie's motto has always been his patrons first and himself afterward. Uniformed ushers are in attendance at every performance to look after the people and answer all questions relative to the gigantic exhibition. There is never standing room sold, no matter how great the demand, consequently those in the seats never have their view obstructed. Every ticket sold entitles the purchaser to a seat.

THE HAMILTON MEETING.

Increasing Interest in Series of Services at First Baptist Church.

Another large congregation gathered in the First Baptist church last night to hear the Rev. W. W. Hamilton, D. D., the general evangelist of the Southern Baptist Convention. Last night, as at all the evening meetings, a half-hour's song service, conducted, by Dr. Hamilton's co-laborer, the Rev. W. D. Wakefield, is held before the sermon is preached. An after-meeting was held last night and plans were discussed for more systematic work in reaching the unsaved. As a result of this conference classes will be organized to-night to carry out the evangelist's idea along the line of personal work among the lost. The morning services are held daily at 10 o'clock, closing promptly at 11. All who attend the morning meetings are urged to bring their Bibles.

Dr. Hamilton's sermon last night was an interesting one and very instructive. A brief report will hardly do it justice. The evangelist's subject was: "The Evidences of Being Lost," the text being found in the first chapter of Philippians, 28th verse.

The interest in these meetings is unabated and Dr. Hamilton expressed himself last night as highly gratified at the large audiences and at the marked attention given the sermons. The daily services will continue through this week and the next and possibly longer.

SLICK SWINDLER, THIS.

Man Who Worked Game Here Wanted in South Carolina.

Mr. W. A. Bell, of Bell Brothers, general merchants of Wampee, S. C., is in the city to ascertain all the facts in regard to the recent operations here of one J. W. Harris, who, it will be remembered, worked a clever swindle on a number of Wilmington merchants a few months ago by drawing part payment on consignments of produce which never came. The same man went from Wilmington through the Shallotte section of Brunswick county and on to Conway and Wampee, S. C., where he worked a similar game with more or less success. At Wampee he succeeded through one subterfuge and another of swindling Messrs. Bell Brothers out of about $60 and other merchants out of various amounts. To cap the climax last Saturday evening the swindler presented a draft ostensibly from Bell Brothers, of Wampee, S. C., on Messrs. Brooks & Taylor, of this city, for $180 and all but succeeded in having the paper cashed. The swindler was bold enough to present it to the Bank of Conway and to telegraph Messrs. Brooks & Taylor, of this city, to know if they would honor Bell Brothers' draft for the amount named. The Wilmington firm promptly replied in the affirmative, but the cashier of the bank was suspicious on account of the anxiety of the man to get the money and he was finally induced to deposit the same for collection. Then he disappeared and has not been seen or heard of since.

Elsewhere in today's paper, Messrs. Bell Brothers advertise a reward of $25 for the arrest of the stranger, a description of whom is given in the advertisement.

The Wierse Injunction.

The injunction recently brought by Mr. Paul Wierse restraining Thomas & Co., of this city, from further prosecuting a garnishee of the plaintiff's wages with the A. C. L. in Georgia, which was accomplished through a collection agency soliciting this business, came up in the Superior Court yesterday upon motion of R. G. Grady, Esq., counsel for Thomas & Co., asking that the injunction be dissolved. Mr. Wierse was represented by Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and Thos. W. Davis, Esq., appeared for the A. C. L. Judge Jones declined to vacate the injunction and an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

THE W. L. I. BAZAAR.

Opening Last Night a Success in Every Particular.

The W. L. I. Bazaar which has been the talk of the young people of the town for some weeks opened last night with every indication of success. The crowd was not what it should have been but those on the grounds spent the evening most pleasantly. The midway is merry, mirthful centre and during the remaining nights of the entertainment it is expected that it will be crowded with fun-makers.

The features last night included the prize drill of the company for the handsome gold medal offered by the officers of the command for the best drilled soldier, and a very enjoyable programme of music in charge of Mrs. Cameron F. MacRae and Mrs. E. K. Bryan. The medal in the competitive drill was won by Private H. A. Lynch. He stood last three of his comrades—Cantwell, Gause and Norwood Orrell—having fallen out of the line on the same command. The musical programme was very much enjoyed.

The carnival will be on again tonight, with accelerated vigor. The young people will be there in great numbers.

"THE LITTLE JOKER."

Return of Popular Arthur Dunn in New Comedy.

One of the gala attractions of the season will be the appearance on Friday night of the favorite little comedian, Arthur Dunn, in a new and original musical comedy, entitled "The Little Joker" written expressly for him, by Herbert Hall Winslow. Mr. Dunn who has always achieved success in any part in which he was cast, will be remembered more easily by our theatre-goers, from his appearance here two seasons ago in "The Runaways" in which play he was particularly successful. In "The Little Joker" Mr. Dunn has a part that fits him to perfection, both as regards his diminutive size and his well known protean abilities. There will be a supporting company of exceptional merit and a chorus of singing and dancing girls that will surely create a furore of admiration, when they appear. The comedy will be superbly mounted and all of the latest mechanical and electrical effects will be used to advantage.

Miss Poisson was a daughter of the late Jehu Davis Poisson and Mrs. Julia Toomer Poisson and of the immediately family, she leaves only a brother, Mr. J. Dickson Poisson, of this city. SCORE 2 TO 1 FOR AMERICANS crowd flowed into the field. Pent up enthusiasm for the American League adherents broke out in wild cheering and tooting of horns, while the supporters of the defeated team for the most part marched solemnly out of the grounds. One crowd captured Rohe and carried him out on their shoulders, while another contingent paid like homage to Altrock.

Elevated and surface cars were crowded with vociferating thousands who yelled themselves hoarse and overflowed into the downtown cars and hotels to continue the celebration. The hotels reported large number of out-of-town delegations here for the games. They come from every section of the country and even foreigners passing through, catching the infection of this ball-crazed city, deserted the usual sight seeing excursions and journeyed to the Westside Park.

Tomorrow's game will be played on the American League diamond.

THE SHARK HUNTERS.

Horrible but Alleged Painless Way the Fish Are Killed.

The strictly commercial business of shark hunting is done in small sloops whose headquarters are in the more northerly Norwegian ports. The crews are for the most part made up of pure blooded descendants of the vikings, who are still to be found in any number among the codfishers of Hammerfest of Tromso. And a magnificent race of men they are! Accustomed from boyhood to a life of hardship, they have a way of treating Father Neptune with a slightly contemptuous toleration, like an old friend, of somewhat uncertain temper, whose rapid changes from smiling benevolence to wild, blustering anger are on the whole rather amusing than otherwise.

They care nothing for danger and little for suffering—in themselves or in others. Why, then, should they stop to think that perhaps a maimed but still living shark can feel?

The fishing is done off the coast of Iceland in about eighty fathoms of water. Three or four gallows-like structures are rigged up around the sides of the sloop and from each of these hangs a pulley block, over which runs a strong rope, and to the end of this the baited hook is fastened. A plentiful supply of ground bait is thrown out to attract the quarry, and such is the eagerness with which the sharks take the bait that sometimes each one of these gallows-like fishing rods will have its fish hooked and fighting for life all at the same time.

There is no "playing" the fish. It is not necessary or possible, and the powerful tackle is hardly likely to break, no matter how fiercely the hooked shark may struggle. But the shark is not for his size a game fish, and except when he is actually being hoisted out of the water there is no very serious strain on the tackle. If he does now and then get away it is not because he ever manages to break the line, but because a lightly fixed hook easily tears through the soft cartilaginous skeleton of his head and so sets him free.

As soon as a shark has taken one of the baits the hauling tackle attached to his particular gallows is manned, and without any superfluous fuss or ceremony he is hauled up to the sloop and hoisted just clear of the water.

He is not brought on board at all, but with a few bold slashes his liver is cut out as he hangs and is thrown into a tub to be further dealt with later. Then his eyes are put out, and he is cut adrift to go and complete the tardy process of dying where and how he pleases.

All this sounds very horrible, but there is one curious fact which goes far to make us believe that this death cannot, after all, be such a cruel one as at first appears. It is this, the fishermen say—that unless they put out the shark's eyes he will afterward cause them a lot of trouble by coming and taking the bait a second time.

It sounds incredible, but the statement is thoroughly well authenticated by eyewitnesses who have seen a liverless shark do just this very thing. Scientists doubtless are right in saying that the shark (which by anatomical classification is one of the lowest of the fishes) does not feel pain in the way more highly organized animals feel it. We will cling to that belief, for it is consoling—to us, if not to the shark, who is thus sacrificed that his liver may supply us with—what?

It is a secret not to be spoken aloud. Norway is one of the great centers of the cod trade, and from cod is made cod liver oil, and shark's liver oil tastes and looks exactly like it.—Pearson's Magazine.

The Nature of an Oath.

Some years ago a case was on trial before the judge of a court in a city adjoining Boston in which among the numerous witnesses for the defense was a decidedly ignorant appearing and shiftless looking colored man named Jones, who was to testify as to an alibi.

He was finally called, and the usual oath was about to be administered, when the attorney for the prosecution arose and addressed his honor, suggesting that Mr. Jones be interrogated as to his understanding of the solemnity of an oath. The judge therefore asked the witness if he understood the nature of an oath, to which he replied, "Yes, sah."

"Well," said his honor, "what is it?" To which Mr. Jones immediately replied, "When you tell a lie, stick to it."—Boston Herald.

ROCK CLIFF LITHIA SPRINGS WATER.

READ WHAT ONE OF THE MOST NOTED CITIZENS OF SOUTH CAROLINA HAS TO SAY OF THE FAMOUS ROCK CLIFF SPRINGS WATER.

Spartanburg, S. C., July 24.

To Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Co.:

Gentlemen:—This will certify that I was severely afflicted with a serious case of erysipelas, that confined me to my bed for about six months or more, with daily attendance of my physician, and which eventually settled in my left leg and became so severe that a consultation of three physicians was held and the decision reached that the lower part of my leg would have to be amputated to prevent the disease extending to the upper part of my leg and body. I declined the operation and was advised to try Rock Cliff Lithia Springs Water. I engaged board near the spring and was advised to bathe my leg in the water, at the same time drinking freely.

This application soon soothed the pain, and for the first time in months previous I slept for about two hours. After a week's treatment, without any medicine or physician's help, I walked to the spring on crutches. I continued the treatment daily, and within two weeks was able to walk to the spring without crutches and in four weeks was able to walk home, a distance of 1½ miles, and resume my official business.

I was permanently cured by the use of the water, and take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to the efficiency of the Rock Cliff Springs Water in the treatment of erysipelas.

Must Have Been Affected By Terrible Earthquake—Current North So Strong That Ships Are Stalled at Hatteras.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 8.—Since the earthquake that destroyed Valparaiso, Chile, last month, marines have been greatly puzzled by the actions of the Gulf stream. North of Hatteras it has been running in a more northerly direction and more swiftly, with the result that vessels bound up the coast get here before scheduled time and vessels bound down the coast become stalled off Hatteras, where quite a fleet of sailing vessels are reported to be.

The effect of the earthquake was felt off Cape Hateras, on Diamond shoals, where Lightship 72 was stationed. Captain Hanson, of the light vessel, which came in here for repairs today, told this story:

"On August 19, and 20 the ship acted very queerly, and we were at a loss to account for it," he said. "The compas swung from east to northeast and back to southeast. There was a short, choppy sea. The Gulf stream changed its course and for ten days we had no current, while the water around the ship changed from the familiar blue of the gulf to a dirty green. On the tenth day we found the stream flowing past us as before and there was no further interruption."

COZY HOMES.

The discovery of a new wick principle—so effective and yet so simple that it's a wonder no one thought of it before—has so revolutionized the manufacture of oil heaters and lamps that explosions, smoke and smells caused by imperfect wick arrangement, may safely be regarded as things of the past.

This new wick attachment is to be found on the Perfection Oil Heater. Interesting tests show that, although the heater gives intense heat, the wick cannot be turned too high or too low—absolute safety thus being assured. One other feature which is worthy of mention is the smokeless device which prevents all smoke and odor. The portability of the heater also commends it for general household use. Heater is very light and can be easily carried about. Its simple operation, usefulness in heating water and warming cold rooms make it a most handy and useful article in any home. This heater is so far superior to other oil heaters, and is of such fair price that its universal adoption is but a matter of time.

The Rayo Lamp, which is made by the manufacturers of the Perfection Oil Heater, is without doubt the best lamp for all-round household use. Is equipped with the latest improved burner, and gives a bright, steady light at small cost. Suitable for any room, whether library, dining-room, parlor, or bed-room.

The perfection Oil Heater and the Rayo Lamp form a combination that for real home comfort cannot be equalled. When consideration is taken of the simple operation of both heater and lamp, their absolute safety, the intense heat generated by the one, and the bright and steady light given by the other—all without smoke or smell—their value in any home, large or small, can be somewhat appreciated. Sold by all good dealers.

A Badly Burned Girl

or boy, man or woman, is quickly out of pain if Bucklen's Arnica Salve is applied promptly. G. J. Welch, of Tekonsha, Mich., says: "I use it in my family for cuts: "I use it in my injuries, and find it perfect." Quickest Pile cure known. Best healing salve made. 25c at all druggists. **

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, October 9.—The cotton market was active and at times quite easier during today's trading with prices advancing sharply on the predictions for frost in the belt over night. The close, however, was considerably off from the top and barely steady at an advance of 16 to 23 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. The opening was firm at an advance of 16 to 21 points in response to higher cables than expected. Liverpool was eight points higher at the hour of the local opening when due to come to 1 to 8 points lower and prices there continued firm after the local opening with private cables to the effect that the market was influenced by failures on the continent and in Egypt which seemed to necessittate purchases in the English market. There was some irregularity immediately following the weather map which made a favorable showing but the forecast was for frost in several sections of the country and when the Liverpool bulls were aggressive buyers. December advanced to 10.64 and March to 10.85 or about 35 to 40 points higher. Toward the close there was heavy realizing and selling by spot people, while some of the bears seemed to be selling for a turn on the theory that the frosts would not be heavy enough to damage the crop.

Receipts at the ports to-day, 84,389 bales, against 79,103 last week, and 79,610 last year. For the week 375,000 bales, against 311,868 last week and 347,362 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 9,607 bales, against 5,413 last year, and at Houston 37,286 bales, against 32,106 last year.

Instinct In Birds.

In the stormy part of the year a steamer encountered rough weather, and, as often happens at such times, many sea gulls hovered near the ship and even came on board. One allowed itself to be caught, and it was found that it had a fish bone stuck in the eye in such a position as not absolutely to destroy the sight, but penetrating an inch into the flesh of the bird and projecting an inch and a half. It might have had a fight with a fish or got transfixed seeking its prey. The doctor of the ship took the bird, extracted the bone, applied a soothing remedy to the wound and let it go. It flew away, but returned the next day, allowing itself to be caught. The doctor examined the wound, which was progressing favorably, applied more of the remedy and let the bird go a second time. It flew several times around the ship and then departed and returned no more.—London Sketch.

Verbal Chiropody.

The pastor, who was calling upon a member of his congregation, asked the name of the sprightly little daughter whose winning ways had attracted his attention.

"We call her Elia," said the little girl's mother.

"That is a good name, Mrs. Donley," remarked the minister. "It has been made classic by Charles Lamb."

"Well, to tell the truth," explained Mrs. Donley, "her name is Cornelia, but it's easier to call her Elia."

"I see," he rejoined. "And she probably likes it better. It is a painless extraction of a Corn."

Fifth Monarchy Men.

The fifth monarchy men formed a religious sect that sprang up in the days of Charles I. of England. They were so called from the fact that they asserted that in the last days the four ancient monarchies, the Assyrian, the Persian, the Babylonian and the Roman, would be restored, and to them would be added a Christian monarchy, or fifth monarchy, of which Christ would be the king.

When Women Suffer

It is a sign of dangerous weakness and disease. WINE OF CARDUI Woman's Relief

"My back ached every month" writes Mrs. Francis J. Ashburn of Clarkrange, Tenn., "till I could scarcely stand on my feet. I had pain low down and headache---not a day without it---and awful pain in my right and left sides. I could hardly lie down, and could not sleep nights. Doctors tried, but failed to give me permanent relief. I began to take Cardui, which soon benefited me, and now I feel like a new person." Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy, for all female diseases. It acts gently and specifically upon the sick womanly organs, and by strengthening and fitting them to do their natural work, it has restored to health thousands of hopeless invalids. Try it.

SCORE 2 TO 1 FOR AMERICANS

First Game of Series for World's Championship on Baseball Diamond.

CROWD OF 12,639 PRESENT

Day Was Raw and Snow Fell at Times During Contest—Puerile Error Was Undoing of Nationals' Game To-day.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, October 9.—The Chicago team of the American League won from the National League pennant winners to-day by a score of 2 to 1 in the first game of the world's championship series. The game furnished a fine sample of modern baseball wherein the fine points of the game are more in evidence than the slugging of other days but there was an error of puerile character which gave the American team its winning margin. And that error also is the reason that to-night supporters of the winning team, erstwhile demanding odds in the betting, are willing to take even money on the series.

At 8:30 o'clock this morning the vanguard of enthusiasts who had not secured reserved seats lined up in front of the box office of t he National League Park. By noon when the gates were opened several thousand men were waiting and within an hour and a half most of the persons who expected to see the exhibition were in their seats. Tickets speculators, warned by the early arrest of eight of their number, soon disappeared The streets were lined with hawkers selling flags, horns, megaphones, photographs of the players and souvenirs without end.

Snow fell several times during the afternoon and was making a good showing when at 2:30 play was begun.

The regular grand stand, the boxes in front of it and the old 50 cent bleachers and the circus seats surrounding the outfield were filled with a warmly bundled crowd whose nerves were so much on edge that they were at the point where cheering acts as a safety valve. The crowd made a circle clear around the field save in the far ends of each of the old stands, the price of which was raised at the beginning of the season from 25 cents to 50 cents. As these seats now sell for $1.00 there were few who cared to occupy them. One hundred policemen were on hand to preserve order and for the first time in years they succeeded, aided partly by the wire cables strung around the field, and partly by the fact that only 12,693 persons were present. It had been expected that over 20,000 enthusiasts would be there to cheer their favorites but the coldness of the weather the possibility of rain and fear that seats could not be obtained kept thousands away.

It was the lot of Right Fielder Hahn of the American League team to walk before 12,000 pairs of eyes as the first man at bat. He ingloriously missed three good ones, thus becoming the first of the seven who were to perform likewise before Pitcher Brown. For four innings in machine made baseball of a perfect type, only one man—Schulte, of the Nationals—reaching first base. Schulte stole second on Captain Chance who with grim determination written in the lines of his jaw, changed bats and faced Pitcher Altrock. Chance swung viciously but his hot grounder was nipped by Altrock with one hand and that chance to score was gone.

In the first half of the fifth, however, Rohe electrified the crowd by sending a stinging hit down the third base line and under the temporary benches in Sheckard's territory, reaching third base on the hit. Donahue struck out atttempting to bunt, but Boughert was more fortunate. He laid down an easy one half way between pitcher and catcher. Brown scooped up the ball in beautiful fashion and tossed it to Kling. Rohe was tearing wildly for the plate and he got there for Kling's frost-bitten finger refused to close around the ball.

In the Nationals went, out one, two, three. The next inning the Americans scored again. Altrock walked, Hahn sacrificed, Jones singled, but Hoffman's beautiful throw caught Altrock at the plate by yards, Jones reaching second on the play. He reached third when Kling fumbled the ball for a moment and crossed the plate with the second run of the game when Isbell singled to left.

The Nationals also scored in this inning. Kling was given a pass and went to second on Brown's single over third base.

Both advanced a base on Hoffman's sacrifice and Kling scored a moment later on a wild pitch. Sheckard, however, was out on a fly ball and Schulte perished. Rohe to Donohue, the latter falling flat on his back but holding the throw in his gloved hand as he fell.

Thereafter neither pitcher was in a critical position and after one hour and forty-five minutes play Jones caught Stinfelt's final effort and the

PANAMA CANAL UNDER CONTRACT

Invitations for Proposals to Complete the Work Were Issued Yesterday.

BIDDERS MUST BE RICH

No Proposition Will Be Considered Unless Contractors Have at Least $5,000,000 Capital and Give Bond of $3,000,000.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, October 9.—Invitations for proposals to complete the Panama canal were issued to-day by the Canal Commision and the form of contract under which the work is to be done was made public by Chairman Shonts, who also gave out a letter written to the Secretary of War, giving the Commission's reasons for contracting the work.

The contract provides that each bidder must undertake the entire work of construction. No bar will be offered to corporations associating in the undertaking, but they must be legally organized into a single body with which the government can deal Bidders will not be considered who do not have available capital of $,5,000.000. A certified check for $200,000 is required with each proposal and a bond of $3,000,000 will be required from the successful bidder. The bidding is not limited to American contractors.

All proposals are to be in before noon of December 12 when they will be opened. Proposals are to be expresed in terms of percentage upon the estimated cost of construction, which is to be fixed by a board of five engineers, three representing the government and two representing the contractors. The chief engineer of the Canal Commission is to be chairman of the engineering board. The engineering board will also estimate a reasonable time for the completion of the canal and will agree upon a system of premiums and penalties to be paid to the contractor according as the work is completed within or beyond the estimated cost and time. All the plant for actual construction work, including the railway, is to be placed at the disposal of the contractor and is to be maintained by the government.

The contract specifies that the Commission is to retain control of all engineering work. in connection with the construction of the canal, also all municipal engineering, the police sanitary hospital and commissary departments, mess houses, quarters, construction and maintenance of buildings, operation of the Panama Railway and auditing department to which contractors accounts are to be open and a department of materials and supplies.

Sixty days after the signing of the contract actual work is to begin on the isthmus, and the contract is to take over all employes on the isthmus which the Commission does not wish to retain. No American employe is to work more than eight hours.

TERRIBLE FLOODS IN MEXICO.

Many Lives Lost and Property Loss Immense.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Mexico, City, October 9.—Recent floods in the southern part of Jalisco and Colima have resulted in great destruction of property and loss of life. The number of fatalities from drowning along the Manzanillo extension of the Mexican Central Railway is 123.

Thousands of tons of earth and rocks descended in great landslides from the mountains. The new steel railway bridge below Tuxpan, was destroyed, a steam shovel weighing 26 tons was borne by the torrent for quite a distance. In one instance the water rose sixty feet. Many houses were destroyed in Tuxpan and Zapollic. Twenty-five lives were lost in the Santiago river; fifteen were drowned by the capsizing of a boat while crossing the river. All were natives. It has been some time since there were such tremendous floods on the west coast.

GOVERNOR TAFT GIVES AMNESTY

Proclamation to Be Issued To-Day Exonerating Participants in Cuban Insurrection.

MURDERERS GO SCOT FREE

American Troops Are to Avoid Conflicts With Cubans and Act as Peacemakers Between Factions—More Soldiers Sail.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Havana, October 9.—William H. Taft as provisional governor of Cuba and Secretary of the United States tonight issued an order to General Frederick Funston outlining the duties of the American forces in Cuba.

The officers of marines stationed in various localities are advised that they are not expected to take part in an active way, in the supression of disorder unless extreme emergency arises in which it is absolutely necessary for them to protect life and property. The duties of the marines are generally limited to tendering their good offices between the conflicting elements and the prevention of that friction which, in the high state of tension between the political parties is inevitable during the present crisis. The order says it is expected that the presence of the marines in the community will create such a sense of security that the rural guards and the police will be able to supress any disorder which manifests itself. The order concludes as follows:

"The President of the United States deems it of the utmost importance that the American forces do not engage in conflicts with Cubans, but that disorders by Cubans be supressed by Cubans. It is also expected that the officers and men, both of the army and the marine corps, will exert every effort to show all courtesies possible to Cubans of all parties and avoid in any way injuring their sensibilities."

The order makes it plain that the marines will remain in the island, for the present, as an adjunct to the infantry.

Governor Taft said to-day that particularly all the American warships now in Cuban waters soon would be withdrawn.

Amnesty Proclamation.

An amnesty proclamation of the most sweeping character possible, pardoning every serious crime which has been an outgrowth of the recent revolution and its causes, will be issued by Governor Taft to-morrow. Complete pardon is granted to all persons involved in the killing of Congressman Villuendas at Cienfuegos in September 1905 as well as to everybody implicated in the killing of several rural guardsmen at Guanabacoa last February. Trouble is predicted by some Cuban publications as a result of this decision to withdraw the prosecution against the murderers of Villuendas.

The proclamation serves notice that armed bands, breaking tre law after to-morrow will be proceeded against and denied the benefits of amnesty.

The amnesty is declared to cover rebellion, sedition and conspiracy. It gives immunity from prosecution for seizures and appropriotions of propermilitary use by the insurrectionary forces, and proceedings already under way for offenses which are amnested, are ordered to be continued forthwith. Prosecutions are ordered to have the proclamation applied to cases in which judgment already has been rendered and further to those in which sentence is being served, and is to be followed in the prosecution now pending on account of the assaults on the rural guardsmen at Guanabacoa and in the hills.

Gov. Magoon Arrives.

Havana, October 9.—Charles E. Magoon the newly appointed provisional governor Cuba, arrived here this afternoon. The steamer Mascotte with Judge Magoon, General J. Frank Bell, Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon entered Havana harbor at 4 o'clock. In the wake of the Mascotte came the battleship Texas, with a detachment of 300 marines from Norfolk.

Upon arriving at the palace, Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Bacon entered their private apartments, and then governor Taft, Mr. Bacon and Mr. Magoon had a long conference in the governor's office.

Following this conference Mr. Magoon received the members of the press. He declined to discuss his plans for the future.

Precautions at Cienfuegos.

Cienfuegos, October 9.—According to authoration given by Governor Taft, Consul General Steinhart this afternoon discharged the chief of police of this city and appointed a Havana man, Captain Landa, commanding the rural guards, as his successor

A statute of Jose Marti, the "Washrington of Cuba." was to ahve been unveiled here to-morrow, the anniversary of the beginning of the ten years war, but the event has been postponed because of the fear that it might result in political demonstrations.
